

THE BARKLEY™

Pet Hotel & Day Spa

TOXIC PLANTS AND FOODS:

Here is a quick reference guide in the more common house and garden plants and foods that are toxic to most animals. If you have these plants or foods, you need not to dispose of them-just keep them away from your pets (and your children).

Indicates that a substance is especially dangerous and can be fatal.

+Indicates that a substance can be fatal if chewed.

Alcohol	Garlic
Almonds*	Grapes*
Amaryllis bulb*	Hyacinth bulbs
Anthurium*	Hydrangea
Apricot	Holly berries
Autumn crocus*	Iris
Avocado	Jack-in-the-pulpit
Azalea	Jimson weed*
Begonia*	Kalanchoe*
Bird of Paradise	Lantana*
Bittersweet	Lily
Bleeding heart*	Lily-of-the-valley*
Boxwood	Lupine species
Bracken fern	Marijuana or hemp
Buckeye	Milkweed*
Caffeine	Mistletoe berries*
Caladium*	Morning glory*
Calla lily*	Mountain laurel
Castor bean+	Narcissus, daffodil
Chinese sacred/heavenly bamboo	Oak*
Chocolate*	Onions*
Choke cherry, unripe berries*	Peaches*
Chrysanthemum	Pencil cactus/plant*
Clematis	Philodendron*
Crocus bulb	Poinsettia
Croton	Potato (leaves/stem)
Cyclamen bulb	Raisins*
Delphinium, larkspur, monkshood*	Rhubarb leaves*
Dumb Cane (Dieffenbachia)*	Rosary Pea+
Elderberry, unripe berries*	Umbrella plant*
English Ivy	Shamrock*
Fig (Ficus)	Spurge
Foxglove (Digitalis)*	Tomatoes (leaves, stem)
	Yew*