GLAM New Pet Hotel On Its Way!

Amazing! What a FABOOSH home away from home for our little friends with fur!

Los Angeles will soon be graced with a brand-new, super luxurious dog hotel - HIGHlariously named The Barkley!

The 32,000 square foot establishment, which is being built in Westlake Village and set to open on October 25th, will feature not only a salon and spa, but also a limousine service!

Sources claim that the hotel's grand opening will feature a red carpet event, and celebrity pets will get their own version of Grauman's Chinese Theater, and will get to have their paw prints cemented and decorated outside the building!

Invitations have been sent to the Maniston, Brit Brit, Paris Hilton, Rihanna, and Nicole Richie!

Ha! We LOVE it!

Our Teddy will have to check this place out and report back on it!
