

Santa Paws

at The Barkley!

On Saturday December 13th, 2008, Santa Paws and his reindeer arrived at The Barkley Pet Hotel & Day Spa to visit some lucky pets and spread his holiday joy. It didn't take long to figure out who had been a good boy or girl this year as Santa handed out his holiday treats. Photos were taken by Clifford Norton Studio and donations were made to the PetFix Foundation to help control the overpopulation of pets. And, while there....even Santa got groomed!
